

14. Pray for our youth as they go out into the community this evening to sing Christmas Carols and deliver cookies to some of our church members.
15. Pray for the final preparation of our Christmas Hampers. Pray for those who will be receiving this encouragement.
16. Pray for our English and Mandarin Services today that we will have a sense of God moving among us in these worship gatherings. Pray for Daniel McDougall as he speaks in our English service.
17. Pray for comfort and community for those of our church family who have lost loved ones over the past year. The Christmas season can be a difficult time of feeling losses more deeply.
18. Pray for the staff Christmas Party this evening, for all of those who work on our church staff. May this be a special time of celebration together.
19. Pray for the gift wrapping at the Tillicum Mall which raises money for the Mustard Seed church and the community they seek to serve. Pray for the volunteer Christmas wrappers, particularly Madeleine Duncan and Mary Jane Spray who co-ordinate this ministry.
20. Pray for the Emmanuel Preschool as they have their Christmas Party this morning before their Christmas break. Pray also for our Good Friends Christmas Luncheon at noon as we gather for a festive lunch and program in the Gym.
21. Pray for the After School children and teachers as they have a Christmas Party today for the last day before they break for 2 weeks.
22. Pray for our Family Christmas Service tomorrow. Pray for the children and youth who will be involved in "The Crooked Christmas Tree" and for our Mandarin choir who will provide special music.
23. Pray for visitors to our Family Christmas Service that they feel welcome, and join us after the service in the gym to get to know us and share in the food and fun.
24. Pray for our Christmas Eve Candlelight Service tonight that it be a joyful celebration of Christ's birth and a welcoming place for visitors from the community to enjoy music, scripture, a simple drama and the warmth of the light of Christ symbolized through candles.
25. Pray for all the families that are celebrating Christmas in their homes today.
Happy Birthday Jesus!
26. Besides shopping, Boxing Day has traditionally been a time to take boxes of goodies to neighbours and friends in celebration of friendship. Celebrate a friendship today.
27. Between Christmas and New Years there is often a break from the busyness of this season. Pray that you might be intentional about slowing down and resting.
28. As we come near the end of the year, it is good to reflect upon God's goodness and to express our gratitude to God in prayer.
29. As we look to 2019, pray that God will help you make Him a priority in your schedule, time, and use of your skills and resources.
30. Pray for our English and Mandarin gatherings for worship today. Pray for God's blessing as we look to the new year.
31. New Year's eve and New Year's day are often a time to reflect on new goals and new priorities. Take time today to reflect on what is important to you in the coming year, with God as your guide.
